

Early Years Transition Programme

Lifelong Learning Programme

Literacy indicators

- signs that indicate that the child is ready, willing and/or is able to participate in storytelling-, drawing- and play-activities in the pre-school, pre-schoolclass or school, which create basis for the actual reading and writing

Storytelling and reading

- | | |
|---|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Shows interest in – and/or plays with words and/or expressions • Is interested in - and/or plays with rhythm in spoken words • Tells about personal opinions, pictures, text and/or experiences • Shows interest in – and/or understands and uses new concepts • Shows interest in – and/or sing songs and rhymes • Formulates questions and/or arguments • Is aware of signs and symbols • Connects logo's with meaning | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Refers to object in the surroundings • Puts words on actions • Listens and is otherwise actively participating when engaged in read aloud sessions • Paraphrases and/or wonders about a story • Is aware of stories told by other children • Shows an interest in books • "Reads" pictures • Is curious in word and letters • Reads "play-reading" • Is aware of the reading-direction • Knows "near and dear" letters and words |
|---|--|

Drawing, writing and scribbling

- | | |
|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Performs "play-writing"/"child-lettering" • Makes text-like doodles • Writes "near and dear" words • Uses IT-based material with language and symbols | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Puts text on drawings • Writes letters/words/sentences • Breaks up words into syllables • Writes with- and on different stuff • Draws stories |
|--|---|

Playing

- | | |
|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Is engaged in roleplaying • Dramatises/plays a story • Negotiates roles for roleplaying • Creates a story / a play-universe with toys and other stuff | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Play-writes in a role • Play-reads in a role • Negotiate and/or develops the frame of the play • Produces signs and props to be used in the play |
|--|---|